Keeping Pet Therapy Volunteers Konnected!

1st Annual Pennsylvania Week for the Animals September 20—28, 2008

1st Annual Pennsylvania Week for the Animals kicks off on Saturday, September 20. Kick-Off events include: Forum on 'The Future of Feral Cat Management,' in Harrisburg, featuring Becky Robinson, President of Alley Cat Allies; 'Race for their Lives-2008' at Gifford Pinchot State Park; and Puppy Mill Awareness Day in Lancaster, PA more important than ever this year!

The week will conclude on Sunday, September 28 with the awesome "Woofstock" Festival, at Riverfront Park in Harrisburg, PA. KPETS will be there! ! There will be a wide array of other events taking place across Pennsylvania during this amazing Week for the Animals.

Throughout the week, shelters, rescue groups, and humane organizations across the state will be hosting other wonderful animal-related special events. Educators, students, businesses and caring citizens across Pennsylvania will be joining in as well, each planning their own activities to celebrate and help animals.

Events will include adoption fairs, spay/neuter awareness events, shelter beautification days, R.E.A.D. dog programs in libraries, walks for the farm animals and therapy dogs visiting hospitals and nursing homes.

Also to be included are a salute to our canine military and police dogs, feral cat initiatives, animal law events, special programs at the zoos, blessings for the animals, and full-filled festival days for families to come and enjoy food, music and the amazing animals!

Become Involved! Events are being planned now, and we need animal lovers everywhere in Pennsylvania to start planning so they can participate! Check out the following website: <http://www.animalweekpa.com/about.html> for lots of great ideas and suggestions on what You can do.

The Chai Story

On Sunday, June 22, 2008 my 10-year old lab mix, Chai, sustained a severe injury from a product that the company Four Paws Inc, produces. The toy I'm referencing is the pimple ball with bell. (Item #20227-001, UPC Code 0 4566320227 9)

While chewing on the toy, a vacuum was created and it effectively sucked his tongue into the hole in the ball. From speaking with my vet, this likely occurred because there is not a second hole in the ball preventing the vacuum effect from happening. I became aware of this when Chai approached a friend at my home whimpering with the ball in his mouth. She tried unsuccessfully to remove the ball but the tongue had swollen and could not be released.

Help Wanted:

KPETS is growing like CRAZY and so are the duties behind the scenes! Could you be a fit for any of these positions?

Membership files: This position requires someone who is familiar with Microsoft Access and Office in general to maintain our membership database. You will assure all membership files are current. Add new members to the database; send out certificates, letters of insurance and name tags. Send out annual renewal letters, and update files as paperwork returns. Also report to the board monthly on orientation attendance and new member/renewal status. Follow-up on members questions and processes as-needed. Computer and organization skills a must.

Andy and Linda Euclide have done an AWESOME job getting the database designed and tweaked over the past couple years! But Andy's career has him traveling a lot more requiring more time commuting and behind the wheel, rather than behind his KPETS desk. Andy is willing to train, so if this is something you think you could help out with, please contact Karen at kareng@kpets.org to discuss.

Why do we need fundraising?

With our continuing growth, the fund raising we are doing is awesome, but in order to support our growth, we need to take this to the next level. The funds we have been accumulating have been covering our expenses. Any additional dollars are being put into an investment fund for KPETS growth strategies which include hiring up to two staff persons in the next one-two years.

With over 120 volunteers and 100+ facilities, we want to make sure all are satisfied. I'm sad to say, things are starting to slip between the cracks. More management of details is needed or our reputation will be at stake. The biggest fundraiser ever for KPETS was this year's Bow Wow Brown Bag Bingo bringing in $6800. But when you think of it on an annual basis and going towards staffs' wages, we could easily add another 0 to the end. These staff positions are not for sharing our pets; they are strictly administrative to keep KPETS business duties under control.

That being said, we'd love to focus on what we are all about, promoting pet therapy and doing public things for the sole purpose of recruiting and educating the public about KPETS and pet therapy services! Not to worry so much about funding.

But in order to do this we need find additional sources for $. So we are looking for someone to help with:

Grant Writing and other development duties. Adella and Jackie have been working hard at this process but we need someone to pitch in and research grants available for us and pursue them completely. Also to assist in other fundraising ventures and over-see them. Grant writing knowledge and experience is needed and/or willingness to attend various informational seminars on the topic. Again, computer skills a must.

Operation Purple Heart

I had the honor of attending a national Operation Purple Legacy Retreat on August 5, 2008. The retreat was sponsored by the National Military Family Association geared to meet the needs and challenges of the families that lost a loved one recently.

Families attended from all over the United States. Zoey and I, along with four other teams of dogs from throughout the State, spent time with about 30 kids and counselors. The program was very flexible, from providing a pet safety program and pet care to just being with the kids and sharing our dogs with them.

I had the privilege to spend time with one of the counselors from Texas. By just watching the kids and dogs, some of the kids needed to talk things out with the counselor. The dogs facilitated that process. Whether being around the pool or just sitting in the shade, the dogs were always accessible for the kids and parents. In addition, after the teams left for the day, adults had the opportunity to have personal counseling by themselves or with their children each night.

The picture below is a GREAT example of the READ Program in action!

In the top picture, Zoey is working her magic with a young lady. Zoey felt that certain kids needed her in their lap, and there she would sit and be loved! There is always a need for comfort during these times and dogs know how to fill that need!!

Another Way To Give

saturday • november 15th • 2008

This is a great way for KPETS to make some easy dollars!

Jenny and Adella have coupon booklets that we all can sell. They are $5 each and that $5 goes directly to KPETS. In that coupon booklet is a $10 coupon for any purchase of $10 or more at Bon Ton or other affiliated stores good on November 15—Community Day.

And there are other saving coupons on various items.

But what is really cool, the non-profit that sells the most booklets, will then be able to sell even MORE booklets on November 15 in the mall! Can you imagine how much attention we'd get with our pooches in there selling booklets.

So contact Jenny or Adella and get your stack to sell now! ! Jenny is required to keep a running inventory count and report back each week. So let's start selling. This is an easy way to bring in $ to apply to KPETS growth strategies! !

Penny for your thoughts is a common saying, although I never thought much about it until now.

I wish I had a penny for every time I tried to think of a way to donate more time and more money to KPETS. Apollo, our English black lab and Abby our mini apricot poodle were initially trained and registered for another national animal assisted therapy organization. KPETS was such a blessing. We were able to find local activities for our animals. In this economy money is tight, as gas and heating fuel prices soar. We are all pressed for extra time. Amos and I think we have found a way to contribute more to our favorite group KPETS. Every year our employers do the United Way fund drive and we make donations. This year we are going to designate KPETS as the recipient and we are going to spread the word. Think about this:

1 person 1 dollar per week = 52.00 per year
 10 people 1.00 per week = 520.00 per year
 100 people 1.00 per week = 5200.00 per year.

I used the 1 dollar as an example. The donation can be whatever. There is no overhead costs, no volunteers needed, and if you already donate to this cause you can designate KPETS.

Pre-assess / Practice Obedience Sessions CHANGES ! !

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

If you plan to attend the practice / pre-assessment sessions at Mennonite Home, please let Wendy know. Class sizes need to be limited.

These sessions are getting too large for the accommodations we have, and also for our evaluators to give everyone the individual instruction needed.

Email Wendy at training@kpets.org or call 888.68.kpets (888.685.7387) and leave a message in box 3. First come First serve. If you do not hear back from anyone, you are good to go for the evening you sign up for.

These sessions are getting very busy and we need to be able to prepare for them accordingly. We also want this to be an enjoyable evening for the residents who have come to look forward to these sessions.

Thank you for you cooperation and understanding!

Doggy Dictionary

DEAFNESS: This is a malady which affects dogs when their person wants them in and they want to stay out. Symptoms include staring blankly at the person, then running in the opposite direction, or lying down.

THUNDER: This is a signal that the world is coming to an end. Humans remain amazingly calm during thunderstorms, so it is necessary to warn them of the danger by trembling uncontrollably, panting, rolling your eyes wildly, and following at their heels.

Holy Cow - Bow Wow Brown Bag Bingo !

Adella Houck and her "worker bees" pulled off a most spectacular Bow Wow Brown Bag Bingo on Sunday, August 31 at Outdoor World near Millersville, PA. This event alone raised $6953,20! There were ten fun and unique Bingo games - I never knew there were so many ways to play Bingo! Each games' winner won one of the HUMUNGOUS Brown Bags for Bingo. These bags contained themed items worth over $100! There was a silent auction with all kinds of items - not just doggie stuff. There were raffle tickets on sale for Chinese Auction gift baskets. And there were raffle tickets for a NASCAR Race in Dover and overnight stays at Outdoor World! The huge room was PACKED. There were so many KPETS volunteers pitching in and helping. It was so cool to see all those yellow shirts flying around all over the place. Adella's "Worker Bees" included:

|-----------------------------|------------------------------|
| Wendy McKelvy | Carol Johnston |
| Austin Youse - ODW | Gini Swartzell |
| Carol/Bill Hopwood | Fran & Tank Holt |
| Bobbie Sayer | Harriet, Friend of Fran's |
| Debbie McGinness | Amy Fish |
| Margo Schwagg | Jenny Rule |
| Becki Lieberknecht | Jane Morgan |
| Peggy, Sarah & Becca Conner | Karen Gerth |
| Marilyn Hapke | Laura Whitman |
| Carol Johnston | Deb Russell |
| Nancy Houston | Tracy - ODW |
| Jeannine Forsythe | Linda Bunch |
| Kate Cox | Moveable Feast (baked goods) |
| Margie Smith | |
| Mary & Eddie Merrell | |

(Please forgive me if I missed anyone. I did not get a chance to confirm with Adella before the already late distribution.)

That's not all of it though. This is the second year Adella has been running Bingos every Friday night for the campground for KPETS. She helped us get our Bingo license and she's been 'non-stop' ever since!

AND she's not finished yet. There are two more Bingos at the end of October. Costume Contest Bingo! ! ! I think I have a plan for my one boy. Wait till you see it. It should be a tough one to top! So why not plan now. Get your costumes ready. You can use them in the parades and at Bingo.

Allela, you're awesome! I'd like to clone you and your worker bees! The words "Thank you" are just not enough to express how much we appreciate your amazing efforts!

-Karen Gerth and all the KPETS teams because without go-getters like you, KPETS could not be sustained!

KPETS Renewals have been sent.

KPETS renewals have been sent out and you should have received yours by this time. If you did not, please contact membership@kpets.org or call 888.68.kpets (888.685.7387) and leave a message in box 4.

The renewals did go out later than we had hope so we will extend the insurance coverage for you until Oct 15. That should give you enough time to fill everything out and have your vet sign the new vet record form. Many times, if a vet knows you and your dog, you can just drop off and have them mail back to you. Please do send your paperwork in all at on time. It makes it so much easier for us to keep organized.

This year forms were sent differently in hopes of keeping records a little more organized. With so many teams having multiple handlers or multiple dogs or BOTH, an application form was sent out for each. Please do not combine handlers on one application. That way Andy and Linda have a file for each individual.

If you have any questions, please call or email the contact info above. With the high demand of pet therapy everywhere, we look forward to connecting you and you pet(s) with those in need in '09!
